This calculator is only a tool to help give you an estimate of what the total purchase price would be, some of the prices refelected in this calculation are hypathetical and should not be considered as firm. The price of the tire, the federal excise tax, mount and disomount, and balance are contract prices and should be honored by the serviceing dealer. The ancilleries are PQL which is price quoted locally by the dealer. In most cases your casings will be of no value due to age but are listed on this sheet for example purposes. Neither FMCA or Michelin North America control some of the pricing given in this quote or quoted by the dealer at the time of purchase.
